

Story@TIMES

Your Library

Kids and libraries are a great combination and weekly storytimes are offered at all six library locations. Check out the many programs offered for toddlers, preschoolers, even babies.

School age children will also enjoy afterschool specials and families will find plenty of other activities and programs throughout the week and on week-ends by visiting our web site.

The Des Moines Public Library offer weekly storytimes for children. For a complete listing of the stories by week, stop into the library and pick up a flyer, call the library at 283-4152, or visit our website and click on Kids Pages.
